ZEHIHABY. THE third session of this institution will commence on Monday the last day of August, under the charge of Misses A. II. Bernard, Principal in the Litary Department & Miss M. E. BERNARD, principal in vecal and instrumental music.
The Misses Bernard evince rare qualities as teachers, and are surpassed by none. It is very desirable that the friends and patrons of this institution would send in their children and wards at an early day so that they may be properly classed; this is of much importance to the pupils and teachers. Tuition as heretofive.

PORTABLE STEAM ENGINES. IIIE subscriber respectfully calls the attention of Southern Planters and Mechanics to the Portable Steam Engines, of which he has the Agency in New Orleans. They are so simple in their contruction that any negro of ordinary capacity can be taught to run one in a day. For driving light machinery, running cotton gins, plantation saw mills, or corn mills, pumping water, steaming food, etc., they cannot be excelled. A striking feature of these engines is that they cost less than would mules or horses, to do the same amount of work .-A pair of horses will readily move them from place to place over any ordinary road. They require no brick work to set them up, but they are all ready to be put in operation, with the exception of a smoke-pipe or chimney. One is kept at work in the subscriber's warehouse every day between 9 and 3 o' clock, and all are invited to call and inspect it. The Planter, especially, should look with pleasure upon the introduction of these Engines, to take the place of horse power in ginning cotton and grinding corn, as the cost of running a , 8, or 10 horse Engine sis much less per day than the expense of feeding the same number of horses. PRICES. 21 Horse Power, ::: 1:4::: : $375 do do 500)8 Magazine street...

Radway's Regulators.

Radway's Regulators.

A thorough purgative;—new medicinal vegitables form the basis of Radways' Regulators: a good appetite, a healthy digestion, a correct action of the heart, a leasent regulator discharge from the bowpleasent regulator discharge from the bow-els, a pure and sweet breath, is secured to all who will take one or two of sad-way's regulators once or twice a week. The weak grow strong, and the lean, fit—the ner-yous, fresful and gloomy, are changed to a strong condition of body, and a harpy flow of spit its.— All who take them are delighted with their on-cration. All the good derived from the use of other pills, are secured by the use of Rudwo's regulators, without catalling the cyll effects of regulators, without entailing the evil effects of common drustic pills upon the system.

The discovery of these wonderful pills estab lishes a new era in purguives, and a new prinseiple in the science of medicine. In taking these prils no gripping pains or sickness of st. mach is experienced. They operate the bowels liver and other organs in a natura and healthy condition.

Each pull that is taken gives new life to the blood; they purify it, take from it all impure de-posits and equalize the circulation.

One or two doses of Radway's regulators will entirely remove all distressing symptoms of Dys pepsia, Jaundice, Nervousness, Indigestion, Costiveness, Liver Complaint, Billiousness, and Costiveness, Liver Compliant, Billiousness, met ancholy, and will cure all organic discusses either in man or woman. Live for Something. Live for something; be not idle— Look about thee for employ; Sit not down to useless dreaming Lubor is the sweetest joy, Folded hands are ever weary, Sellish hearts are never gay, Life for thee hath many dutie Active be, then while you may.

Scatter blessings in thy pathwhy ! Gentle words and cheering smiles Better are than gold and silver, With their grief dispelling wiles, As the pleasant sunshine falleth Ever on the grateful earth, Se let sympathy and kindness Gladden well the darkened earth.

Hearts there are oppressed and weary Drop the tear of sympathy,
Whiteer words of hope and comfort
Give and thy reward shall be
Joy unto thy soul returning
From this perfect fountam-head; Freely, as thou freely givest, hall the grateful light be shed.

My Father. BY HENRY R. JACKSON OF GEORGIA. As die the embers on the hearth. And o'er the floor the shadows fall, And creeps the chirping cricket forth, And ticks the death-watch in the wall; I see a form in yonder chair, That grows beneath the waning light

The palid brow, and locks of white. My father ! when they laid thee down. And heaped the clay upon thy breast, And left thee sleeping all alone, Upon thy narrow couch of rest, know not why I could not weep The scothing drops refused to roll And, oh, that grief is wild and deep, Which settles tearless on my soul!

JACKSONVILLE Female Academy.

THE next term of this Institution will commence on the 31st day of August, 1857, and continue 21 weeks. In the management of this School, the grand object of Education,—combining thorough intellectual training with theacquisition of practical knowledge-will be constantly kept in view. No merely mechanical routine of class-exercises will be observed; but the recitations will be conducted so as to require of the pupils reflection and independent investigation, the only means of giving strength and vigor of the mind. As our three-fold nature caunot be harmoniously developed if physical Education be neglected; Physiology will be included in the course of instruction, together with such gymnastic exercises as are calculated to promote physical health and symmetry.

If it is regarded as a matter of interest to this community and country, that the Jack-sonville Female Academy should become a flourishing, and permanently popular Institution, let it be remembered that this can be not be official without the prompt and never be effected without the prompt and hearty co-operation of the friends of Edu-Fellors, Dashes, & &c., which will be cation in this vicinity.

From the Puritan Recorder Providence. Look and listen, look and listen! Thou eniding hand shalt see, Lovingly shall talk with thee.

Cling thea to that hand confiding, Even as a little child; They who trust the heavenly guiding, Safely pass through deserts wild.

Safe through forests, lone and fearful, Safe through throgus where pleasure lare Safe alike in sunshine cheerful, And when clouds the way obscure.

Holding fast the hand so tender, Listening to the kindly voice, Every fear then may'st surrender, And for evermore rejoice.

I could tell to thee a story-

Who, thus trusting, has grown old, Through the storms of many winters, That have gloomed above his head, through the colder storms of sorrow,

Many such there might be told— Of a man, now old and heary,

He in safety has been led. Subject to the world's mutations. Oft in darkness, oft in fear, Oft in dangers and temptations

Still the kindly voice was near.

Whispering to him, 'Be not fearful Thou shalt never 30 astray; Let thy heart be brave and cheerful, I will lead thee on thy way."

What though foes would have bereft him Of his honorable name: Seeking on that brow so noble,

What though early friends departed, From before his lingering eye, And fall often weary-hearted Longed he far from earth to fly.

What though want, her terrors wearing, What though sickness crosse I als was And the Tempter, grown more daring, Degged his footsteps day by day.

Passing toward the better land; istening to the voice so tender, Holding fast the guiding hand. And the shadows lengthen round him,

Yet he passes onward still:

Heeding not the equing darkness. Feeling not the evening chill. Look and listen, look and listen-Thou the guilling star shalt see, And a voice divinely tender.

Lovingly shall talk with THEE.

Melodies and Mysteries. BY CHARLES MACKAY. Would'st thou know what the blithe bir pipeth High in the morning air? Would': Ithou know whatthe blithe stream Ripping o'er pubbles bare? Sarraw the mystery shall teach thee And the words declare.

More than thy fellows find? Than odor on the wind? Shall whisper to thy mind.

Would'st thou know what the moon discourseth To the doclle sea ? Would'st hear the echoes of the music Of the fair infinity? Sorrow shall open the founts of knowledge And Heaven shall sing to thee.

Would'st thou see the riddle of Being Further than others can? Sorrow shall give thine eyes new lustre

"Spare the Little Birds."

Enlightened agriculturists have long been protesting against the wanton and senseless practices of cutting down trees; and killing birds, merely for the sake of human destructiveness. As regards thelatter, especially it has grein and again been demonstrated that the birds are mong the best friends of the farmer, the gardener and the fruit grower. A writer in the Charleston Mercury, however, goes into details and gives some carious statistics on the subject. He states it, as an indisputable fact, that one-lifthe and perhaps one fourth, of the crops of the Union, is destroyed by insects. These insects are greatly on the increase chefy on account of the destruction of frogs, tonds, snakes, terrapins, and (se bove ali) small birds. The common wren is one of the most useful of these birds. Their nests are said sometimes to contain as many as, twenty or twenty-five young, which are nurtured almost entirely on caterpillars and other insects. The above mentions. ed writer courted in twenty-four minutes; . forty-two of the larva of the butterfly conveyed to one nest by a pair of wrens. MARINE LOSSES FOR SEPTEMBER.
